

Developing Catholic teachers and school leaders to ensure the future of Scotland's Catholic schools

How can we ensure that we have sufficient teachers of quality to staff and lead Scotland's Catholic schools for years to come?

How will these teachers be helped to develop their skills for this work?

If you are an interested parent, teacher, or student, we want you to join our conversation at an open meeting of the

CATHOLIC EDUCATION COMMISSION on Saturday 13th June 2015
10am to 1pm in the Gillis Centre,

Travelling to the Gillis Centre

By Bus:

No 5 from North Bridge (at the east end of Princes Street) stops at the gate.

Nos. 24 & 41 go to Marchmont Road. Strathearn Road is at the traffic lights, Turn right into Strathearn Road and walk to Gillis (5 mins. on foot).

Nos. 11,15,16,27,27,45 from Princes Street and Lothian Road go to Bruntsfield Links, walk down Whitehouse Loan to the Strathearn Road junction (traffic lights) and turn left to the Gillis Centre. (5 mins. on foot).

By Car:

Gillis is located in Bruntsfield on the south side of the city centre, so easily accessed from the Edinburgh Bypass. From the Bypass turn off at the Lothianburn Road exit, towards the city centre. You travel along Comiston Road and Morningside Road (a shopping area). At the top of Morningside Road, at traffic lights, just after Waitrose, turn right into Church Hill. This leads into Strathearn Place. Go straight ahead at the traffic lights, into Strathearn Road and the Gillis Centre is just on the left (high wall and entrance gates). There are a few spaces for private parking available on a first-come first-served basis. There are on-street parking spaces on Strathearn Road.
