The St Andrew's Foundation for Catholic Teacher Education

Research Seminar

What is understood by a Catholic philosophy of education?

Given the integration of Catholic schools into the Scottish system and the influence of Catholic educational institutions across the globe, there is a pressing need to revisit the intellectual foundations of such bodies. This seminar will equip participants with the knowledge and insights necessary for such an important task.

Speaker

Professor Bob Davis

(Head of the School of Education, University of Glasgow)

Respondent 1

Dr. Dan White

(Executive Director of Catholic Schools, Archdiocese of Sydney)

Respondent 2

Michael McGrath

(Director of the Scottish Catholic Education Service)

The seminar will take place on May 13 at 5pm in room 433 of the St. Andrew's Building, School of Education, University of Glasgow.
