

Pilgrims of Faith

Senior Phase Research Activity

With reference to the four marks of the catholic church, explain how the holy spirit unites the church to the life and mission of christ and how the gift of communion can bear fruit in the world through the Church.

The mark of "one" signifies the unity of the Church. Through the Holy Spirit, the Church is united to Christ. How is this unity expressed?

One

The Church is "holy" because it is sanctified by the Holy Spirit. How does the Holy Spirit sanctify the Church?

Holy

The mark of "catholic" means "universal. How does the Holy Spirit enable the Church to fulfill this universal mission?

Catholic

The Church is "apostolic" because it is founded on the apostles and continues their mission. How does the Holy Spirit ensure the apostolicity of the Church?

Apostolic

The Holy Spirit unites the Church to the life and mission of Christ through the four marks of the Church, and the gift of communion enables the Church to bear fruit in the world by fostering unity, inspiring service, and providing a hopeful witness to the transformative power of God's love